

Is Isaiah 30:25 a reference to 9/11?

It would seem the passage written by the prophet Isaiah refers instead to future events which will come to nations that oppress Israel. God has promised that they will be delivered (Is 30:25).

Regarding chapter 18 of The Book of Isaiah, Bob Westbrook wrote:

This prophecy may be speaking of the US, in conjunction with actions taken that will result in an Israeli victory over the Palestinians. As the process to create a Palestinian state appears to be approaching consummation, God takes forceful action to thwart it. Something that for all appearances is a nuclear attack hits the US. This great calamity upon the "land of whirring wings" puts an end to the process. But afterwards, Christians and Jews in the US will bring gifts to the Temple Mount for the rebuilding of the Temple.¹

The United States is planning to reveal a so-called peace plan in the near future.
