

How can I figure out what my spiritual gifts are? I am alone, I have no family and I have God only. I've been under a lot of mental oppression lately. I really feel like evil spirits have been attacking my mind with confusion. A lot of the time, I will hear voices and the voices I hear are not mine and not coming from God either. Could you please pray for me that God shows me a way out of these weird things that keep going on in my life...

It is wise to get into a small group (He 10:25) where like-minded individuals can help one to determine his spiritual gifts (1 Co 12:1-3).

The Holy Spirit lives in each believer and commands and guides one's obedience and allegiance to the Lord Jesus. The Holy Spirit interprets Jesus' Lordship in one's life and he is the giver of spiritual gifts (1 Co 12:4-6, 11). Believers gather around God's truths (2 Pe 1:12).

God can speak through dreams and visions; but he primarily speaks to the believer through his word (Jn 17:17).

Christians are encouraged to test all things (1 Thess 5:21) to be sure that a message is consistent with God's word and character (Ps 31:19, 34:8).

I am happy to pray for you: I pray that the Lord help you to find peace and that any spirit who would wish to do you harm be gone in Jesus' name.

Guard your heart (Pr 4:23) and study the scriptures (Ac 17:11). When you spend time studying the Bible, you can't help but be drawn to Jesus (Jas 4:8). He is not far from and one of us (Ac 17:27).
