

How will we be able to cope in heaven knowing that our loved ones live forever in hell?

Our understanding and emotions will be transformed in heaven to align with God's perspective, allowing us to recognize the justice and righteousness of His decisions[1][2]. God will remove all sorrow and mourning in heaven, fulfilling His promise of eternal happiness[2][3]. It's suggested that we may view those in hell from God's vantage point, loving without vulnerability or hurt[4]. One must trust God's wisdom and justice. Hell cannot negate the joy of heaven[1][2].

[1] Geisler, N. L. (2011). If God, Why Evil?: A New Way to Think about the Question (p. 112). Bethany House Publishers.

[2] Rhodes, R. (2024). The Complete Reference Guide to Bible Prophecy (p. 413). Harvest Prophecy.

[3] Hitchcock, M. (2015). Visits to heaven and back: are they real? (pp. 178–179). Tyndale House Publishers.

[4] Habermas, G. R., & Moreland, J. P. (2004). Beyond Death: Exploring the Evidence for Immortality (p. 282). Wipf & Stock Publishers.