

Will God hold back blessings because I refuse to act with greater faith?

Those who are of faith are blessed (Ps 34:10, Ga 3:9) though it may not always seem to be so (Lk 6:22).

Believers are asked to continue on in faith: Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them (Ga 3:10). David wrote: For I have kept the ways of the Lord and have not wickedly departed from my God (Ps 18:21, ESV).

The Christian walks by faith (Ps 23:4, 2 Co 5:7) continuing on in love, holiness and good judgment (1 Ti 2:15) bearing his cross when need be (Lk 14:27)

Some are blessed with faith (1 Co 12:9a) while others must work at it (v. 12:29–30).

One believes with the heart resulting in righteousness (Ro 10:10).

Men must humble themselves before God and be corrected when they are wrong (1 Co 11:31).

God's way is best (Jer 29:11-13, Jn 10:10). He has laid out a path for men to follow (Ps 119:105).

One can count it all joy (Jas 1:2) when he is empowered (Jn 14:16) to yield to Him (Jas 4:7).